

DCT's

Dhempe College of Arts and Science
Miramar- Goa

LIST OF DEPARTMENTAL CLUBS

- 1) Psychology Club (Department of Psychology): The aim of this club is to promote an interest in the applied areas of psychology through films, talks, field trips, and interactions with institutes working with individuals with special needs.
- 2) Philosophy Association (Department of Philosophy): The association conducts various activities for students during the academic year such as debates, screening of documentaries, paper reading sessions and visits to old age homes. Field trips, seminars/workshops/conferences, community service at institutes for the underprivileged are also organized.
- 3) Economic Forum (Department of Economics): The Economic Forum conducts various activities like quizzes, debates, discussions on various current economic issues. Students are given the opportunity to display their talents in the form of photo exhibitions, poster exhibitions, field trips, etc. The Forum also invites placement agencies in banking, HR, BPO's, etc. for employment of our students. The students are encouraged to answer competitive exams like CMAT, CAT, banking exams, etc. The forum also conducts entrepreneurship training and exhibition in the College campus.
- 4) History - History Forum (Department of History): This is a platform under which heritage tours, trails, walks, talks, lectures, etc. are arranged for students. This forum also organizes audio visual presentations on the history and heritage of Goa. Various trails such as Kushawati Heritage Trail, Mhadei Heritage Trail, Miramar - Tonca Pillar - British Cemetery Heritage Walk. Old Goa Heritage Walk and History heritage study tours are organized. The screening of various historical films is held. Guest lectures as well as historical plays are organized to develop interest in the students. Commemorations of the birth and death anniversaries of historical figures such as D D. Kosambi. Sardar Karnail Singh, Sarojini Naidu, Mahatma Gandhi etc are observed. The heritage fort of Zuvem (St Estevam Island) has also been adopted by the forum.

- 5) Literary Association (Department of English): The association organizes literary festivals, conducts quizzes, and invites eminent writers to interact with the students. It also prepares students for inter-collegiate literary festivals and competitions. The annual intra college lit-fest 'Carpe Diem' is organized under the aegis of this association.
- 6) Communication Club (Department of English): The Communication Club conducts activities such as quizzes, debates and elocution competitions. The club also organizes competitions on essay writing and poetry writing, among other things. These events are open to all college students.
- 7) Movie Club (Department of English): This club screens movies based on novels, plays, as well other educational movies for students of literature and other college students and also encourages reviews.
- 8) Political Science Forum (Department of Political Science): This is a formal platform consisting of teachers and students which aims to provide students with the opportunity to exhibit their talents and learning beyond the classroom and take part in activities like quizzes, debates, talks by prominent personalities etc. for the enrichment of faculty and students, field trips, site visits and short education tours are organized for students under the aegis of the Political Science Forum.
- 9) Nature Club (Department of Zoology): The club conducts live presentations and screening of movies related to environmental issues. Nature trails, discussions and competitions are also held as part of the activities of this club.
- 10) Bhartiya Bhasha Mandal (Department of Indian Languages): This forum organizes various activities for students such as quiz competitions, poetry recitations, debate, essay writing, short story translation and guest lectures. Besides these several lectures on art, culture and literature are organized for the college students. Films, dramas and documentaries are also screened for students.
- 11) Chromophore Club (Department of Chemistry): The Chromophore Club is a dynamic and innovative club of the Department of Chemistry. This club organizes poster competitions, quiz competitions and industrial visits. The club also organizes a series of lectures by inviting eminent persons from the industry. It encourages students to participate in seminars and workshops conducted by Goa University and the Association of Chemistry Teachers (ACT), Goa, which help develop their interest in chemistry. A yearly bulletin "Chromophore" is released which provides an insight into the latest advances in the field of chemistry.
- 12) Quarks Club (Department of Physics): Quarks Club has been formed to stimulate scientific talent amongst students of this institute. Any science student of this college can become a member of this club and participate in its activities; the club engages in activities like science popularization, science quiz programmes, science exhibitions, workshops, study tours, etc. with focus on Physics. The club has also taken the initiative of organizing scientific visits to power stations and research labs through this club, the Department of Physics organizes workshops for students of our college The Quarks Club releases a news bulletin named "Quarks Newsletter" which highlights all the activities of the club and also focuses on frontiers, research and development and discoveries in the field of physics.

13) Operon Club (Department of Biotechnology): The Operon Club aims at the overall development of biotechnology students, which. includes enriching biotechnology-related conceptual knowledge providing information about research and career opportunities, organizing seminars, preparing students for various entrance examinations and honing life skills such as communication skills, spoken English, stage presence etc....

_____ as available in the College Prospectus _____